

- Bible, 55, 56;
his early works
and distinctive doctrines, 56-60 ; at Worms, 60, 61
; his political views, 46, 68-70, 92-95, 114-119;
precursors of,
48, 49; burns
the Papal Bull, 60; his relations with Hutten, 62, 63, 68;
controversy with Henry VIII., 70; a popular hero, 71 ; effects of his teaching on the people, 71, 72 ; L. and the Zwickau prophets, 72, 73 ; L. and Carlstadt, 72-74; L. and Thomas
Milnzer, 74, 75
; his antagonism to the German peasants, 92-95, 102, 103;
not a social reformer, 106, 107; L. and Zwingli, 113, 114; his
dogmatism, 131-135 ; his ideas of toleration, 133, 134 Lyndsay,
Sir David, Life and reforming works of, 387-395
- Maastricht, Siege of, 280
- Machiavelli, his
originality, 13, 14, 21, 22; system
of, 16 ;
life of, 20;
works of,
loetseq.;
method of, 21-25 ;
political doctrines
of, 25-33
- Magdeburg, 124
- Maitland of Lethington, 421, 422,
435, 436,
451, 454-
457, 459,
463, 464
- Major, John,
Life and political doctrines of,
368-375
- Maldonada, Spanish popular leader, 226
- Margaret of Parma, Regent of the Netherland s, 242/244-255
- Margaret, Regent of the Netherlands, 230, 241
- Marguerite, Queen of Navarre, 158, 159
- Mariana, 206
- Marsiglio of Padua, 4, 21
- Martin
- Marprelate, 353-356
- Mary of Guise, or Lorraine, wife
of James V., 381, 382;
attitude towards the Reformation, 410, 411,
413, 414, 416-419; her Francophile policy, 382, 407, 408, 418;
deposition of,
420, 421
- Mary, Queen of England, Persecution
under, 319-324

|   |   |
|---|---|
| Mary, Queen of Scots, 182 ; her marriage with Francis II., 407; her treachery to Scotland, 407, 408 ; attitude towards the Scottish Reformation, 433 ; her arrival in Scotland and her religious policy, 434-436, 442, 443, 460, 461 ; Knox's attitude towards, 436, 437 ; her interviews with Knox, 438-442, 443-445, 447-449; presides at the trial of Knox, 450-455; relations with Elizabeth, 459, 460, 467; her marriage with Darnley, 463; her marriage with Bothwell, 463 ; her victory over the Protestant Lords, 461, 462; her imprisonment and abdication, 463; her escape and flight, 465, 466; her fate, 466, 467 | of William of Orange, 291 ^ Maximilian, The Emperor, Regent of the Netherlands, 230 Mayenne, Duke of, 188 Medici, Cosimo and Lorenzo de, 12, 17 ; Catherine de, 182, 183, 185, 187 Melancthon, 15, 16, 55, 102-104 Melville, Andrew, 15 Mennonitism, 240 Menzingen, Stephan, German peasant leader, 92 Metzler, George, 91, 96 Mirandola, n, 13, 15 Mondragon, 270, 272 Moneins, Governor of Bordeaux, 168 Monluc, Bishop of Valence, 422, 423 Monluc, Blaise de, 186 Montaigne, 16 ; political views of, 173-175 Montcontour, Battle of, 187 Montigny, 258 Montmorency, Constable of France, 167, 169, 185-187 Mookerheath, Battle of, 270 More, Sir Thomas, 15, 16, 20 ; compariso n with Machiavelli , |
| Mary, Regent of the Netherlands, 230, 241   |   |
| Mathias, Archduke, Governor of the Netherlands, 276, 277  |   |
| Mathiaszoon, John, 240  |   |
| Maurice, son  |   |